

Statement from Chief Judge Hunter Greene of the Family Court ,

As most, if not all, of the issues that arise in the Family Court are time sensitive, the Family Court will continue to be open. The Court recommends that litigants not file anything requesting a hearing unless it is absolutely necessary.