Taylor Porter's Preston Castille Appointed to Baton Rouge City Court

Taylor Porter congratulates partner Preston J. Castille, Jr. for his appointment to the Baton Rouge City Court Bench by the Louisiana Supreme Court.

Mr. Castille will preside from January 1, 2009 to as late as July 1, 2009 in the vacant seat created by Judge Trudy White's election to the District Court. He will return to the full-time practice of law with Taylor Porter when his term is complete.

Preston Castille's law practice engages primarily in business transactions and litigation and chairs the firm's Health Care Practice Group. Mr. Castille is also an adjunct Professor of Law at the Paul M. Hebert Law Center at Louisiana State University and the Southern University Law Center where he teaches Louisiana Civil Procedure I & II and Pretrial Litigation Practice. In addition to being an experienced transactional lawyer and litigator in both state and federal court, Mr. Castille assists clients with matters involving the Louisiana Legislature and other state and local governmental entities.
